WORK OF THE GALE

Damage Along New England and New Jersey Coasts.

PLEASURE CRAFT FARED BADLY

The Beaches at Cape May and Atlantic Highlands Washed and Torn by a Tremendous Surf—Houses Undermined and Railroad Traffic Delayed.

Boston, Oct. 13.—That the present gale will prove disastrous to shipping no one has the least doubt, and the reports of the next few days will probably bring intelligence of many wrecks. More or less damage has already been sustained and the storm has wrought havoc among the pleasure craft in this vicinity. The small schooner yachts Marie and Elsie broke adrift from their moorings in the Cow Pasture and were being driven to certain destruction, when the tug boat Fulton gave chase and succeeded in picking up both yachts and towed them to East Boston. The Marie had her bowsprit carried away and the Elsie lost her headgear. The sloop yacht Egeria was driven on Rip Rap Wall last night and one of her sides was smashed in and she is fast going to pieces. Sloop yacht May is ashore at the Cow Pasture, but it is thought she will be gotten off uninjured. Between twenty and thirty yachts have broken from their moorings at South Boston and a large number of them damaged so badly that they will not be worth repairing. Capt. Swim of the tug Florence states that he sighted a two-masted British schooner scurrying before the wind, under bare poles in Dorchester bay, but he was unable to learn her name. He fears she met with disaster. The fishing schooner New England, Capt. Lewis, came into T wharf last evening from Georges with a fare of about 12,000 pounds of mixed fish. Capt. Lewis says he never saw rougher weather than was experienced between Highland Light and the Lightship. Just below the lightship two gigantic waves nearly engulfed the schooner, but by easing her off she escaped with only her decks being swept. The New England saw no vessels in distress. The extreme high tide seriously impeded traffic on the ferries.

Destruction at Cape May.

Cape May, N. J., Oct. 13.—Last night's high tide and heavy sea washed the remnant of beach avenue at South Cape May into the sea. The waves broke against the houses, cutting out the underpinning and sweeping away fences and trolley tracks. St. Peter's chapel, at Cape May Point, has lost part of its steeple and may drop on the strand at any moment. Last Cape May beach was swept by the sea and the trolley roadbed washed out. The board walk in front of this city was damaged, portions of it being washed away. The damage to the shore line from Cape May Point to Sewell's Point is estimated at $10,000.

Damage at Atlantic Highlands.

Atlantic Highlands, N. J., Oct. 13.—The damage by the storm is considerable, private shore property and bulkheads being destroyed. The greatest damage was done at Highland beach, where several valuable buildings were undermined and a great inlet was forced through the beach to the Shrewsbury river, breaking the government railroad to the Sandy Hook proving grounds. The telegraph cable by the railroad bridge was badly damaged. Below, toward Seabright, the railroad tracks were covered several feet deep with sand in some places while in others they were torn from their bed and destroyed. The telegraph and telephone poles were demolished. The amount of the damage cannot as yet be computed.

Livestock Experience on a Train.

Atlantic City, N. J., Oct. 13.—Passengers on the Newfield local train over the West Jersey railroad, bound for this city, had an exciting experience yesterday. The train was trying to cross the Meadows over tracks submerged in three or four feet of water by the storm, and was halted near the tower, where the fatal railroad wreck occurred last July, because the fires in the engine were extinguished by the water. Here the train was stalled in the midst of a sea from 10 o'clock in the morning until 5 in the afternoon.

Three Miners Killed.

Wilkes-Barre, Pa., Oct. 13.—Three men named Thomas Mitchell, George Bittleski and John Petrus, rock miners, were instantly killed in the Ladlin shaft yesterday afternoon. They were at work near the foot of the shaft laying a track when a body of rock fell upon them, crushing them beyond recognition.

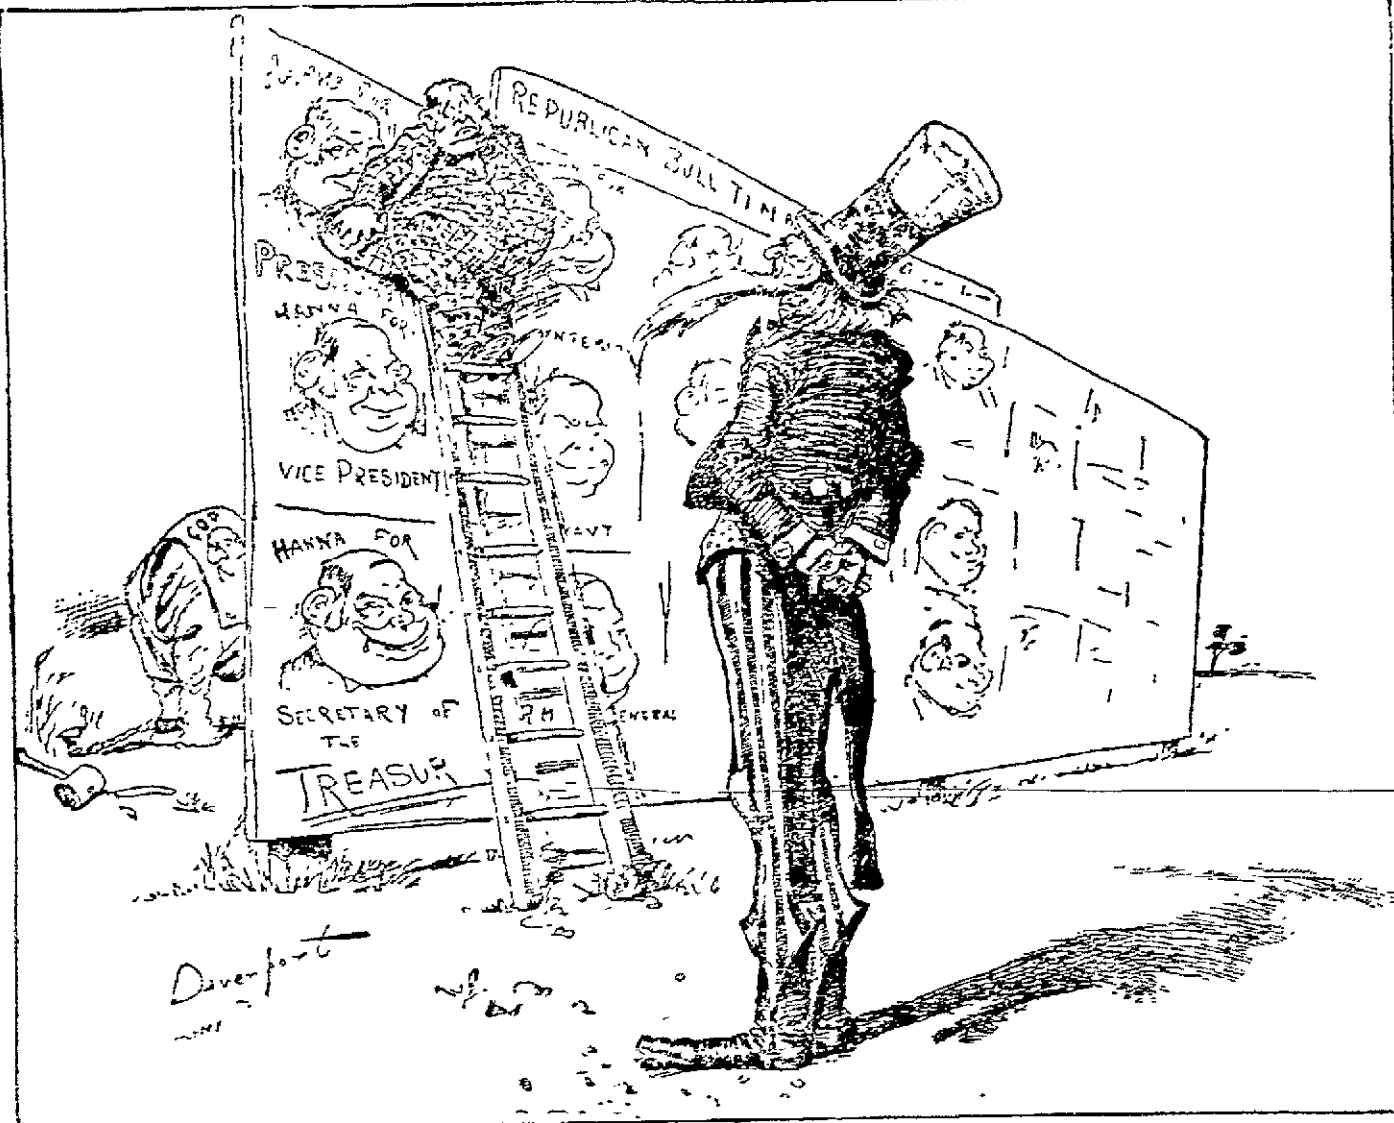

Cut Down by the Dolphin.

Newport, R. I., Oct. 13.—Friday evening the U. S. S. Dolphin cut down to the water's edge the fishing schooner Mary E. Webb of Gloucester, off this port. She came here for repairs.

New Electric Company Incorporated.

CHARGED WITH EMBEZZLEMENT

Edward Waite, a Boston Oil Merchant, Must Account for $3,410.

Boston, Oct. 13.—Edwin Waite of the firm of Waite, Williams & Co., oil merchants, was arrested yesterday afternoon on a warrant charging him with the embezzlement of $3,410. In default of bail he was committed to the city prison. Mr. Waite is 54 years of age, is well known to the oil trade and his arrest caused great surprise to a large number of business friends. The warrant on which he was arrested was sworn out by Royal B. Conant, Walter H. Conant and Florence L. Wheeler, children of the late Mrs. Alvin Conant, who charge Waite with appropriating to his own use $3,000 left by their mother in his hands as trustee for the children. Two years ago Mr. Waite failed and it was then learned that he had invested the money in his business, but as he paid the interest regularly, matters were allowed to remain as they were. Recently, however, attempts have been made to obtain payment of the principal, but as these efforts were unsuccessful, a criminal charge was brought.

WAR PREPARATIONS

Russia Mobilizing Naval Forces at Sebastopol.

GETTING READY FOR AN EMERGENCY

A Gunboat Loaded with Mines, Shells and Torpedoes and a Company of Submarine Engineers Are Held in Readiness to Immediately Embark.

London, Oct. 13.—The Daily Graphic today publishes a dispatch from Sebastopol saying that Russia is continuing her preparations for an emergency. The local military and naval forces at Sebastopol, Odessa and Batoum have been mobilized. Gen. Bobrikoff, chief of the war office staff, recently arrived at Sebastopol and was held important conferences with the local commanders. He has inspected the garrison and arsenal, and has picked out a company of submarine engineers who have been ordered to hold themselves in readiness to immediately embark upon a gunboat. This gunboat is already loaded with mines, shells and torpedoes. The interior garrisons in Poland, Florida and the Caucasus have received orders to be in readiness at a moment's notice to board special trains for ports on the Euxine.

BIG CONFLAGRATION.

Several Large Buildings and Two Stables Burned at Great Barrington.

Great Barrington, Mass., Oct. 13.—The largest fire that ever occurred in this town broke out at 10 p. m. in a tenement house near the New York, New Haven & Hartford railroad station. The fire soon spread to the Kennedy hotel and livery stables, and the Miller house stables, situated in the center of the town. A large brick block in Railroad street was also soon in flames. All of these buildings were soon destroyed and the flames spread to the Hollenbeck block and the Miller house. The wind was blowing a gale from the north and it was feared that the fire would cross Railroad street to the south side of that thoroughfare. The excitement is still so great that the cause of the fire cannot be ascertained at this time. There was at one time danger of complete interruption of telegraph and telephonic communication to the outside world.

Killed While Sky-larking.

Quarantine, S. I., Oct. 13.—A private, named McHugh, fell from a balcony of the barracks at Fort Wadsworth last evening and was instantly killed. He was sky-larking with a comrade on the balcony and fell over the iron railing to the stone floor beneath. McHugh struck first and his comrade fell on top of him. McHugh's comrade was stunned and had both knees hurt.

Sudden Death of a Boston Official.

Boston, Oct. 13.—Alfred F. Noyes of Abundant, a member of the Metropolitan Sewer commission, dropped dead in the Park Square station yesterday, while on his way to take a train for Dedham. Heart disease was the cause. He was 45 years of age.

FUNERAL OF DR. BENSON.

The Primate's Remains To Rest Near the Ashes of His Predecessors.

Chester, Eng., Oct. 13.—The remains of the Archbishop of Canterbury, Primate of All England and Metropolitan, the Rt. Hon. and Most Rev. Edward Whit Benson, D. D., who died suddenly at divine service in the church at Hawarden Sunday, at which place the archbishop was the guest of Mr. Gladstone, which were removed to the rectory were placed in a coffin last night and were then transported to the church. The burial will take place at the Addington parish church, where lie the remains of the deceased's daughter and five of his predecessors as archbishops of Canterbury. Mr. Gladstone is well, but he is deeply saddened at the death of Dr. Benson, who was an old and dear friend of the veteran statesman.

Sympathy from the Queen.

The queen has sent the following message to the widow of the Archbishop of Canterbury: "I am stunned by the awful news. My heart bleeds for you, but my sorrow is great. I was so fond of the dear, kind, excellent archbishop." The court circular expresses the grief of her majesty and says that she feels that the country has sustained a serious loss by the death of the eminent primate, while she has lost a friend for whom she had a strong regard and affection. The Prince and Princess of Wales, the Duke and Duchess of York, other members of the royal family and all the eminent men in the kingdom have sent messages of sympathy to Mrs. Benson, widow of the archbishop.

"A BACCHANTE" REFUSED.

Boston Public Library Trustees Decide the Statue Is Not Suitable.

Boston, Oct. 13.—Mr. Macmonnies' statue of "A Bacchante" which was offered by Mr. McKim, the architect of the Public Library, to the trustees of that institution with the design of having it used as the centre piece of the fountain in the central court of the building, was formally rejected by the art commission yesterday, it being voted that the secretary be instructed to inform the trustees of the Public Library that, while recognizing the remarkable technical merits of Mr. Macmonnies' statue of "A Bacchante" as a work of art, this commission does not regard it as suitable to the Public Library building.

Their Minister Too Strict.

New Haven, Conn., Oct. 13.—Rev. E. F. Kidder of Trinity Methodist Episcopal church, this city, has recently delivered a series of sermons and talks against card playing, dancing, tobacco smoking and theatre going. This was not at all to the liking of a majority of his parishioners and the board of trustees of the church society has voted not to extend a further call to Mr. Kidder, who has been pastor of the church since April last.

Over $30,000 was raised for benevolent purposes during the year.

IMPUGNS OUR HONOR

Yachting Association's Reply to Gould Arouses Americans.

A BLOW TO INTERNATIONAL SPORT

Committee Disclaim All Intention of Discourtesy and Claim the Niagara Was Searched According to Custom—Other Points Not Discussed.

London, Oct. 13.—Many prominent and wealthy members of the American colony in London are deeply indignant at what they consider to be the discourteous reply of the Yacht Racing association to Howard Gould's complaint that his yacht, the Niagara, was boarded and searched by a committee of the association during his absence, without previous notice to either himself or his captain, in order to inquire into the report that the water tanks on the Niagara were connected by a pipe and could therefore be used to shift ballast while racing. Among those who have taken up arms against the association are several who own or are interested in yachts, and they predict that international yacht racing will suffer a blow from which it will take long years to recover. They deny the assertion contained in the letter that notice of such visits is never given, and point out that this statement is an insinuation that, if such notice were given, American yachtsmen would take advantage of it and conceal what the Englishmen, by their curt reply, apparently consider absolute evidences of dishonesty. They claim that such insinuations impugn American honor and add real bitterness to the royal sport of yacht racing. The letter, signed by Dixon Kemp, secretary of the Yacht Racing association, follows: "I am directed by the council of the Yacht Racing association to acknowledge the receipt of a letter from you, dated the 28th of September. I am to reply that the visit of their committee to Niagara was made in the usual course and solely in consequence of the official measurer having, in May, 1896, in execution of his duty, reported to the council that her water tanks were connected together in such a manner that they might be used as shifting ballast. Notice of such visits is never given. The committee expected to find you on board, but, hearing from your captain that you had left for London only a few minutes before, they requested permission to inspect the tanks, which was readily given. Their declarations confirmed the report of the measurer, and they notified you in writing that the tanks should be disconnected, at the same time expressly disclaiming any imputation that the tanks were actually put in for improper use. The council fail to perceive that any discourtesy was displayed toward you, and certainly none was intended. It is not necessary to enter into any discussion of the other points raised in your letter. As you thought fit to make your grievance public through the press, it is proposed that this reply shall pass through the same channel."

London Newspaper Comment.

London, Oct. 13.—The Daily Graphic commenting in its issue today upon the letter of the council of the Yacht Racing association to Howard Gould, will say that the letter should set at rest the lingering doubts as to the courtesy and straight-forwardness with which the council acted. It adds that a good many American yachtsmen have yet to learn that if they race here they must submit to the same conditions as the princes, peers and commanders of Europe.

THE CLAIMS COMPROMISED.

Col. D. R. Paige, Who Fled from New York Four Years Ago, Returns.

New York, Oct. 13.—Col. David R. Paige, the failure of whose firm, Paige, Carey & Co., about four years ago, caused the failure of the North River bank, has returned to this city from Buenos Ayres, to which place he fled shortly after the crash. It is said that friends have come to his assistance and that most of the claims against him have been compromised. Lawyer Kellogg, who conducted negotiations for compromise, said this morning that he had settled claims amounting to $500,000, giving 20 per cent. cash and notes secured by claims for $500,000 against the city, for work done on the Croton Aqueduct by Paige, Carey & Co. for 30 per cent. of the balance. Claims now outstanding against Paige, he said, would not amount to more than $60,000, and that he expected to be able to settle them on the same basis. In regard to the North River bank's claim of about $400,000, Mr. Kellogg maintained that it had been compromised before Paige left the United States, a portion of the aqueduct claims, amounting to $400,000 having been turned over to the receiver.

Washington, Oct. 13.—United States Ambassador Rustis at Paris has cabled to the state department that P. J. Tynan, who was arrested at Bologna and whose extradition was asked for by the British, will be released by the French officials. This confirms the unofficial report already published.

REPORTED CUBAN REVERSE.

Spanish Officials Claim To Have Inflicted Enormous Loss Upon the Insurgents.

Havana, Oct. 13.—Dispatches received here from official sources in the province of Pinar del Rio say that another battle has been fought between the Spaniards and the insurgents under Antonia Maceo, resulting in another victory for the former. Gen. Echague was in command of the government troops and Maceo led the enemy. The fighting took place at San Diego and the insurgents are announced to have sustained enormous loss. The dispatches also say that the loss of the Spanish troops was considerable, that the fighting continues and that no details are at present obtainable. As these dispatches not only emanate from government sources, but are edited by the censor, the result of the battle may turn out to be a defeat for the Spaniards, especially in view of the fact that they admit they sustained heavy losses, which they very seldom do. The fact that no details are given is also significant.

Unarmed Men Killed by Troops.

Havana, Oct. 13.—It is officially stated that Major Fondevila's command has had a fight with the rebels under Valencia near Banos del Botica, province of Havana. The rebels were defeated with a loss of nineteen killed. The Spanish loss was two wounded. Advice from other than official sources are to the effect that this reported victory is similar to other "engagements" where unarmed men were killed by the troops. There are rumors here of an engagement near Esperanza, province of Santa Clara, between the loyal troops and rebel forces from the east under Rabi or Mayia Rodriguez. The rebel leader Aniceto Hernandez has been condemned to death by a court-martial at Cienfuegos.

CARDINAL SATOLLI'S FAREWELL

He Leaves Highland Falls for New York To Sail for Rome.

Highland Falls, N. Y., Oct. 13.—His eminence, Cardinal Satolli, bade adieu last evening to his host, Rev. C. J. O'Keefe, whose guest he has been for the last three days, and departed for New York. During the forenoon the cardinal drove to West Point, witnessing a cavalry drill by the cadets, and was shown through the various buildings of interest about the post. In the afternoon a number of priest from towns and cities along the Hudson river called upon the cardinal at the local rectory. Among others were Dr. Edward McIlvinn of Newburgh and two Italian priests of New York city, one of whom was a nephew of Cardinal Satolli. An elaborate luncheon was served by Father O'Keefe at which several prominent West Point army officers were present.

Rumors of Her Loss Set at Rest by Her Arrival at Halifax.

Halifax, N. S., Oct. 13.—The British cruiser Talbot, concerning the safety of which startling rumors were current in London yesterday, sailed into Halifax harbor last night. She saluted the flag of Vice-Admiral Eskine as she moved to her anchorage. The Talbot sailed from Portsmouth October 3, having been commissioned for British North American and West Indian stations. She is one of the British newest ships of war, and this is the first time she has been in American waters. The news from London that she was reported to have foundered at sea created intense excitement in naval circles here and among the military.

Gladness Comes

With a better understanding of the transient nature of the many physical ills, which vanish before proper efforts—gentle efforts—pleasant efforts, the directed. There is comfort in the knowledge, that so many forms of sickness are not due to any actual disease, but simply to a temporary condition of the system, which the pleasant family laxative, Syrup of Figs, promptly removes. That is why it is the only remedy with millions of children, and everywhere esteemed so highly by all who value good health. Its beneficial effects are due to the fact, that it is the only remedy which promotes internal cleanliness without debilitating the organs on which it acts. It is therefore of great importance, in order to get its beneficial effects, to note when you purchase, that you have the genuine article, which is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only and sold by all reputable druggists.

If in the enjoyment of good health, and the system is regular, laxatives or other remedies are then not needed. If afflicted with any actual disease, one may be commended to the most skillful physicians, but if in need of a laxative, one should have the best, and with the well-informed everywhere, Syrup of Figs stands highest and is most largely used and gives most general satisfaction.

Somerville, N. J., Oct. 13.—Elmer Clawson, the 17-year-old boy who has been on trial for a week in the Somerset court for the murder of farmer Harry Hodgetts, near Pluckemin, was convicted yesterday afternoon of murder in the first degree. On the morning of August 29 last Clawson, while engaged in conversation with Hodgetts, drew a revolver and shot him through the breast. Clawson attempted to escape on a bicycle, but was captured by a posse of farmers and brought to the county jail. An attempt was made to prove the boy insane by medical experts and a great number of witnesses. Clawson's manner in the witness box, however, was fatal to his plea of insanity.

PALMER DEFEATS MURPHY.

The Yankee Boy's Pluck Heavily Appreciated by Englishmen.

London, Oct. 13.—The fight between "Bull" Palmer of London and Johnnie Murphy of Boston for the bantam-weight championship of the world took place last night at the National Sporting Club and was won by Palmer. Both men were in excellent condition, and the fight was a most interesting one. The Englishman was a good favorite in the betting at odds of 9 to 4 on. The Englishman forced the fight from the outset of the battle. He was much the better in his delivery, and he hustled Murphy round the ring in lively style. In the first two rounds Murphy failed to land a single good blow. Nevertheless, he stood up bravely and took punishment pluckily as Palmer rained blows upon him with his right and left. The pluck of the Yankee boy was heartily applauded. In the third round Murphy landed once or twice, but did no apparent damage to his opponent. Murphy started in the fourth round with more advantage, but he was terribly slow. Round after round Palmer rushed Murphy about the ring, but the American did not show that he had been punished much until the end of the twelfth round. Then he went to his corner very tired. Before time was called, however, he pulled himself together and made a splendid fight in the thirteenth round. Despite his pluck he was too terribly battered to recover permanently and Palmer had the battle in hand to the finish. At the end of the twentieth round Palmer was declared the winner on points. Murphy was not knocked out.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address, F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, 75c.

Tetter, eczema and all similar skin troubles are cured by the use of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. It soothes at once and restores the tissues to their natural condition, and never fails to cure piles. W. D. Olney.

They are so little you hardly know you are taking them. They cause no griping, yet they act quickly and most thoroughly. Such are the famous little pills known as DeWitt's Little Early Risers. Small in size, great in results. W. D. Olney.

DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve is an antiseptic, soothing and healing application for burns, scalds, cuts, bruises, etc., and cures piles like magic. It instantly stops pain. W. D. Olney.

MORE GENIUS THAN GUMPTION.

Inventors Whose Ideas Have Made the Wrong Men Rich.

Just why inventive genius and gumption should go together it is hard to say. Certain it is that inventors are the most guileless individuals in their dealings with others on business matters, and fall easy victims to the spiders who lie in wait for such flies. The list of clever men who walk to-day while those who ride owe their luxury to the other man's genius and their own shrewdness is an interesting one. Here are a few cases picked haphazard from the chronicle of inventions that fail to benefit the inventor, or, at least, produced for him merely a little of what was his due.

It is not necessary to be very old to remember when hooks were first put on men's shoes in place of holes, in order to save time in lacing the shoe at the top. This was the brilliant idea of an inventor to whom it should have brought a fortune. It would have done so had he been a shrewd business man. Being merely an inventor, he hadn't sense enough to keep his idea to himself until the patent office padlock had secured it against theft. In the innocence of his nature the inventor confided the idea to a friend, while crossing the North river on a ferryboat, and the friend hardly waited for the boat to tie up in Jersey City before he exposed himself, started back to New York and went on a dead run to a patent lawyer, in order to have the idea secured for his own especial benefit. Another man is known to-day as the "inventor of the lace hooks. He owns a splendid house, and is wealthy. The confiding inventor got nothing.

The inventor of a patent stopper for beer bottles, something that had long been wanted by the trade, sold the invention for $10,000 to a man who recognized its great money-making value. The purchaser is now worth $5,000,000, all of which he made from the sale of the patent stopper. Out of the goodness of his heart he presented the original owner of the patent with $30,000, so that the man got $40,000 in all for his $5,000,000 idea. To give some notion of the value of the patent rights on this bottle stopper, it may be said that when the patent expired and others began selling the stopper, the price came down from one dollar to six and seven cents a gross, and even at this enormous reduction a good profit could be made.

This last inventor was treated with princely generosity, however, in comparison with the genius who devised a pocketbook clasp in the shape of interlocking horns with balls at the end, that snapped shut with a slight pressure. The idea was afterwards applied to gloves, and became very much in favor. The inventor relinquished his prize for the magnificent reward of a kidney stew dinner and 50 cents, the latter to pay the inventor's expenses from Newark to New York. The man who secured the idea and patented it, after treating the inventor in the royal manner mentioned, made a big fortune by his shrewdness. What became of the inventor is not known.

Another example of the lack of warieness in the average inventor's make-up is a man who has conceived almost as many novel ideas in a different way as has Edison in the electrical world. This man has made several fortunes and lost them. To-day he is as poor as a church mouse, but is hard at work on many new inventions, with some of which he promises to make a sensation. He came in to prominence some years ago in connection with a nickel-in-the-slot machine that was patented in almost every country in the world. Leaving a partner to look after the interests of the firm in New York, the inventor traveled through the country selling state rights.

The state rights were gobbled up in every direction, and $125,000 was shipped in various sums to the New York office. One fine day the inventor, while enthusiastically pushing his work of selling state rights, received a telegram stating that the sheriff was in possession of the nickel-in-the-slot company's plant, and the firm was being sued by creditors. The inventor hurried back to find that the $125,000 had been quietly secured by the New York partner in his own name, while all that was left for the inventor was the plant and the debts of a clamoring army of creditors.

The courts could do nothing. So trustful had the inventor been that no legal artillery could be brought to bear on the case. The partner is now traveling through Europe on the money he secured, while the poor inventor is trying to retrieve his fortune in sackcloth, ashes and perspiration in a little four by six office near the city hall—N. Y. Recorder.

WANTS VOTES AND ASKS FOR THEM

A "Joke" That No One Can See Any Point To.

The following appeared in last evening's Press:

"A Democratic candidate for Alderman in the Third Ward was at the registry place all day, Saturday, and as each stranger registered he button-holed him and sought his vote on election day. It was considered quite a joke by those he button-holed."

If the above was true—which it is not —the average man would fail to find any joke. Hasn't a Democratic candidate as much right as has a Republican candidate to ask his friends to vote for him?
Is there a Republican candidate in the Third Ward or any other ward who will not secure every vote he can? Is there any party that place where a candidate prohibited from soliciting votes?

Is it not true that the Press has reason to believe that the Democratic candidate referred to in the paragraph quoted, will secure a large number of Republican votes as he has done more than once before and as he deserves at the coming election? If there is any joke in this man isn't the joke on the Press?

THE CONVALESCENT CHILDREN'S HOME.

Plans for Work on a Large Scale Next Year—Officers Elected.

A meeting was held at the Y. M. C. A., rooms, yesterday afternoon, at which were present some of the ministers and representatives of the several churches, and the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Convalescent Home. The meeting was called to discuss plans for the operation of the Child en's Convalescent Home for next season. It was the opinion of all that so much good had been accomplished the past summer that it was well worth while to try to conduct the Home on a much larger scale next year, with the expectation of proportionately larger benefits.

It was also decided that the Board of Managers should consist of one lady and one gentleman from each of the churches interested in the plan to help the sick children in the tenement districts in New York.

The following officers were elected for the ensuing year:

President—H. W. Tutill.
Vice President—A. G. Wheeler.
Secretary—E. M. Fiero.
Treasurer—R. H. Wood.
General Manager—A. B. Hurtin.
Assistant General Manager—L. I. Foote.
Mr. Wood, who was the General Manager last year, positively declined a re-election.

Delaware division of the Erie, fished the Swamp Mills Pond for pickerel, Saturday. He was in a boat and saw a deer tempted to head the animal off, but it suddenly raised in the water, got its forefeet into the boat and threw Peter and his catch of fish overboard.

STABBING AFFRAY IN NEWBURGH.

Blood Drawn in a Quarrel Over a Woman.

Newburgh papers, without mentioning names, tell of a stabbing affray that took place in the rooms of a woman in that city. The parties to the fracas were an out of town man, who was paying the woman's expenses, and a Newburgh youth, referred to as the "white-haired boy," on whom the woman had fixed her affections. The woman and man left immediately afterwards, one of the men making his exit through a rear window.
The agent for the house and a policeman broke into the house, yesterday, and found it smeared with blood, and everywhere evidence that its occupants had taken a very hasty departure. The woman is said to be in Fishkill.

Whom He Caught at Work.

Frank Conkling, nineteen years old,
who lives with his father near Mattennight, by one or three thieves whom he surprised in his father's chicken coop.

The wound is a very severe one and may prove fatal. Owing to the darkness he can give no description of his assailants.
The police are working on the case, but are not hopeful of capturing the guilty parties.

RATS FEAST ON FINE CANDIES.

A Most Unusual Early Morning Sight in a Confectionery Store Window.

Several persons who were on the streets early this morning were entertained by two large rats, who were feasting in the window of Paul P. Purp's candy store. They were wise rodents and selected the goods in the window because samples of the fine f confectionery are kept there. The rats knew they were safe behind the plate glass and paid no attention to passers-by.
